

Forever Yours Weddings

Friends and Family, we have come here today to witness the marriage of Groom and Bride.

They have asked us to be with them in the making of this important commitment. The essence of this commitment is the taking of another person in his or her entirety as lover, companion and friend. Thus we ask that the promise and hopes of this union be realized.

Vows

Groom do you take Bride to be your wife and equal?

Will you share your life openly with her and strive to love, honor and stand beside her in times of celebration and in times of sadness, in times of health and in times of sickness, in times of joy and times of conflict?

Bride do you take Groom to be your husband and equal?

Will you share your life openly with him and strive to love, honor and stand beside him in times of celebration and in times of sadness, in times of health and in times of sickness, in times of joy and times of conflict?

Ring Exchange

Groom please place the ring on Bride's finger and repeat after me.

With this ring, I thee wed

Bride please place the ring on Groom's finger and repeat after me.

With this ring, I thee wed

A circle is the symbol of the sun, the earth, the universe; of wholeness, perfection, peace and of unity. Like circles, your rings have no beginning and no ending. They are tokens of the growing relationship you have come here to celebrate and confirm.

Pronouncement

You have joined together and together you shall go forth. May your unity last through all your life together; through the trials and triumphs that lie ahead, so that at the end you may feel just as you do now – happy to be in love and married.

I now pronounce you husband and wife.

GROOM, YOU MAY NOW KISS YOUR BRIDE!

*May I introduce for the first time,
Mr. and Mrs. _____*
