

Forever Yours Weddings

Groom and Bride have come together in the hopes that the love which brought them to this union may go beyond itself into the lives of others. Yet, they know it is not easy to build a deep, personal relationship, even in marriage.

Marriage is a supreme sharing of experience, and an adventure in the most intimate of human relationships. It is the joyous union of two people whose comradeship and mutual understanding have flowered in romance. We gather here today to rejoice, with and for them, in the new life they now undertake together.

Vows

Groom, do you take Bride as your wife?

Will you always inspire her to be a better person?

Will protect your marriage and fight for your love and happiness every day of your life?

Will be there for her in times of plenty and times of want, in sickness and in health, in failure and in triumph?

Will dream with her, celebrate with her, support and walk beside her through whatever your lives may bring?

From this day forward, do you promise to love her endlessly for who she is and not who you want her to be?

Bride, do you take Groom as your husband?

Will you always inspire him to be a better person?

Ring Exchange

Bride, take Groom's ring, place it on his finger and repeat after me:

With this ring I thee wed.

Take it as a symbol of my everlasting and unconditional love with all that I am and all that I have from this day forward as your wife.

Groom, take Bride's ring, place it on her finger and repeat after me:

With this ring I thee wed. Take it as a symbol of my everlasting and unconditional love with all that I am and all that I have from this day forward as your husband.

The wedding ring is a symbol, in visible form, of the unbroken circle of your love, so that wherever you go, you may always return to your shared life together. May these rings always call to mind the power of your love.
